

THE CRITICS ARE SAYING:

The Village Voice - Zita Allen

Gallman's Newark Dance Theatre is stocked with talent, reached a spine-tingling high in Gallman's Precious Memories. Gallman updates a familiar choreographic concept and creates a work which borders at times on being a conceptual equivalent of Ailey's Revelations.

The Black American - William Moore

Gallman's Newark Dance Theatre is a group of young dancers who no matter what - dances their heart out when they perform. They literally tear up the stage.

Dance Magazine - Julinda Lewis

The troupe's success in bringing to its feet an audience...indicates that Alfred Gallman knows what he is doing. The combination of a clean balletic line with movements that are pure funk is a winner!

Other features of the school are:

Apprenticeships - advanced students are selected for apprenticeship with Gallman's Newark Dance Theatre, where they are given the opportunity to rehearse and learn the company's repertory and when ready, to perform in the company's larger ensemble works. Qualifying apprentices are offered positions in Gallman's Newark Dance Theatre.

Workshops - promising students are given performance opportunities through workshops in Ballet, Modern, and Jazz. New works are especially created for workshop students by faculty choreographers.

Urban Youth Scholarships - the school will provide scholarship opportunities for inner city youths who have shown talent and potential for professional careers.

Adult Enrollment - knowledge and appreciation of the arts of dance as a rewarding recreational, physical and artistic pursuit in Ballet, Modern, Jazz and Ethnic.

Children - Pre-kindergarten through 8th grade will receive a basic introduction to Ballet, Modern and Ethnic.
